But make no mistake: these games are the summit atop a craggy and unforgiving mountain. Fueled by a newfound maniacal work ethic throughout his college years, and then after college while working during the day at a Foot Locker, Baldwin sharpened his game in a self-imposed solitary confinement in the gym and weight room until he had made himself into a viable professional basketball player. Leonard K. Length: 4 hrs and 5 mins. Over the years I have compiled several guides and tips for players on how to get their careers started, what to expect on the way and once they are in the door
