Read I using the workbook! Be the first to like. In spite of the terrible consequences sins may bring, grace also means we allow others the freedom to choose, regardless. In spite of the terrible consequences sins may bring, grace also means we allow others the freedom to choose, regardless. Max Lucado. Readers will find out why Jesus taught that goodness is not even a requirement to enter heaven - and why Christianity is beyond fair. Think carefully! He implies that grace means that we have to let people just grow at their own pace. It is not difficult to lack grace.
