In summary, despite there being no evidence in print, there seems to me to be sufficient historical evidence as to the validity of the Armada theory as being the main derivation and that other usages are related to this primary root. I was having this problem in Mozilla Firefox which I have uninstalled and will reinstall but it is also happening in Internet Explorer. By their account, the 'bar-sark' was worn only by members of the Norse chieftan's personal bodyguard, they being the most ferocious, and thus the most feared, of the Vikings plundering eastern Scotland and the hapless Dane-mark. CatieConrad:Faith,friendshipandfashiondisasters! The market town of Crieff in Perthshire was the main cattle market up tillbut at the start there was opposition from the Provost in Perth, so there was an illegal trade in cattle before it became the official Drover's Tryst or cattle market. Those carets have disappeared, at least for me. Brewer also cites a reference to a certain Jacquemin Gringonneur having "painted and gilded three packs of cards for the King Charles VI, father of Charles VII mentioned above in Rowdyaristocratswerecalled'Bloods'afterthetermforathoroughbredhor off-screen : Whee!
