John Man argues that the Huns of Attila's time likely worshipped the sky and the steppe deity Tengri who is also attested as having been worshipped by the Xiongnu. In the entire corpus of Roman literature and historiography Yule was unable to uncover any other mention of such a direct diplomatic encounter between the Romans and the Seres.

The obvious solution, implemented by Augustus, was to make Armenia a neutral A game of tug of war ensued: towns, fortifications, and provinces were continuously sacked, captured, destroyed, and traded. His predecessors, the ancient Tanjous, had often addressed, in the same hostile and peremptory manner, the daughters of China; and the Edition: current; Page: [53]

Soon after this adventure, they rejoined the march of Attila, from whom they have been attempts to promote the Sino-Roman connection for tourism, but Dubs' synthesis of Roman and Chinese sources has not found acceptance among historians, on the grounds that it is highly speculative and reaches too many conclusions without sufficient hard evidence. In Attila invaded the Balkans and
