Reconstructions multiplied, based on minute observation of the statue itself or intricate comparison with closely related works. No photography can capture the charged atmosphere or the way in which the painting surrounds the viewer on every side; we must almost literally join the cast of the painting [37]. The very act of describing the sculpture is bound to elicit a sensual rhetoric, whether we emphasize its naturalistic appeal or respond to its idealized beauty. TheGraveyardBook. How far does the small scale open up other readings - the toy bow melding Apollo with little Cupid the toy boy? From R The bowl of fruit, much as a modern still-life, evokes material comfort and plenty, while at the same time celebrating its own virtuoso display of painterly talent, squandered on the everyday objects of domestic life. But, again, we cannot be certain that this was not a vessel plying routine trade do I pay?
