Schultes agrees, pointing out that the idea of paradise has been seen many times in the series, but almost always illusory or deadened. In our conversation, the young scholar emphasised to what extent the eastern part of Gorno-Badakhshan was subject to cultural, geographic and political fragmentation within the region. Born in New Orleans, Dunbar-Nelson later moved to Delaware, and her remarkable diaries reflect her active engagement on behalf of civil rights for African Americans and women. Signin.
