I climb to where harebells dance in late August sun knowing you will never dance on this earth. Visit the podcast and listen to a recording of the event. Behindashadow. I am a lover Running my fingers through her hair And gazing into those green, green eyes Adoring the tilt of her head And the lift of her lips Their softness agonizingly sweet. Words that taunt, Words that flow, Words that tease.
Now, at the watershed, this moorland matches my craving for openness. When the Space.
