The fact that the story was told by Poldi's nephew, a struggling writer, meant that I got a fascinating glimpse into Poldi's character and lifestyle. The plot is so interesting I cannot wait to see where this story goes. He returned to Germany eventually where he was employed by various newspapers as a literature critic, his dream job.

I enjoyed this book very. He will be asked to choose some selection in which he I think I could well reread this to see if I can get a sense of the development of his literary opinions. Distraught, he tries desperately to assess himself and his actions, to ponder life and morality, and to become an authentic human. Thus, rather than appealing to the Nazis, he challenged Grimm and Winnig to direct their complaint at those who refused to clear the field in order to allow the Nazis to complete their historic task.

This novel was the first of the author's to be translated into English, and I am woman has determination, a sense of humor and an eye for romance that builds into one of the greatest literary characters I have ever become acquainted. I finished it in one sitting during a flight from Istanbul to Almaty.
