The will for a systemic change seems to have lost most of its momentum, which is why it is vital to establish or argue for a mechanism that allows us to criticise the neoliberal market system with a strong voice; not via occasional protest or in an uncoordinated, ineffective way aimed solely at showing disagreement, but through the language of the equally global project of human rights. Ex: one's right to life and existence as a person cannot be realized without one's right to work and maintain a good standard of living. This is not the case anymore. Reduction of pensions and simultaneous increases of the pension age can thus have a major impact on the material situation and risk of poverty of older people. Should there be a cause established under the jurisdiction of the CHR, the complainant will be asked to provide documents and proofs for the case.
