Johnny connects the dying man's words with his missing sister and goes on an intensive search. However, this one is different in almost every way due to the depth of the characters we meet along The Last Child way, the many threads cast by each person, and the way these threads come together through the course of the novel.

Alyssa's parents are devastated and their marriage suffers as the mother blames her. With over two million copies in print, his novels have been translated into thirty languages and can be found in over seventy countries. His writing is polished and palatable, The Last Child somehow still sort of gritty on the tongue. Her disappearance has shredded his once idyllic family.
